The Poet's Corner.DARE TO STAND ALONE.

Be firm, be bold, be strong, be true,
And dare to stand alone;
Strive for the right, whate'er you do,
Though helpers there are none.

Nay, bend not to the swelling surge,
Of popular sneer and wrong;
Twill bear thee on to ruin's verge
With current wild and strong.

Stand for the right! Humanity
Implores with groans and tears,
Thin aid to break the festering links
That bind her twiling years.

Stand for the right! Though falsehood reign,
And proud lips coldly suet;
A poisoned arrow cannot wond'

A conscience pure and clear.

Stand for the right!—and with clean hands
Exalt the true on high;

Thou'lt find warm sympathizing hearts
Among the passers by.

Men who have seen, and thought, and felt—
Yet could not hardly dare

The battle's brunt, but by thy side
Will ever dangers share.

Stand for the right!—proclaim it loud,
Thou'lt find no answering tone

In honest hearts, and thou no more
Be doomed to stand alone.

THE Head of Oliver Cromwell
Before leaving England I had an opportunity of seeing a great curiosity, a relic of antiquity, which few Englishmen have seen. You will be surprised, and perhaps incredulous, when I say I have seen the head of Oliver Cromwell—not the mere skull, but the head entire, and in a state of remarkable preservation. Its history is authentic, and there is verbal and historical evidence to place the thing beyond a doubt.

Cromwell died at Hampton Court in 1658, giving the strongest evidence of his earnest religious convictions, and of his sincerity as a Christian. After an imposing funeral pageant, the body having been embalmed, he was buried in Westminster Abbey. On the restoration of the Stuarts he was taken up again, and hung in Tyburn. Afterwards his head was cut off, a pike driven up thro' the neck and skull, and exposed on Westminster Hall. It remained there a long while, until, by some violence, the pike was broken and the head thrown down. It was picked up by a soldier and concealed, and afterwards conveyed to some friend, who kept it carefully for years. Through a succession of families, which can easily be traced, it has come into the possession of the daughter of Hon. Mr. Wilkinson, ex-member of parliament from Buckingham and Brondy. It was at the residence of this gentleman that I saw the head, and his daughter, a lady of fine manners and great culture, exhibited it to Rev. Mr. Verell, the pastor of the Bromley Dissenting Chapel, and myself.

This head of Cromwell is almost entire. The flesh is black and sunken, but the features are nearly perfect, the hair still remaining, and even the large veins over one of his eyes—such being a distinctive mark on his face—is perfectly visible. The pike which was thrust through the neck still remains, the upper part of iron, nearly rusted off, and the lower wooden portion in splinters, showing that it was broken by some act of violence. It is known historically that Cromwell was embalmed, and no person thus cared for was ever publicly glibbered, except this illustrious man. In addition to the most authentic records concerning the head possessed by the family, and which I have found sustained by historical works, and even in an old manuscript in the British museum, Mr. Flaxman, the distinguished sculptor, once gave it as his opinion that this was none other than the head of Oliver Cromwell

Democrats of Adams,
"ONCE MORE UNTO THE BATTLE-FIELD!"

THE people of Adams county are invited to meetings of the Democracy, to be held at the following times and places viz:
In GETTYSBURG, on Monday evening next, Sept. 27th.
In FAIRFIELD, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 28th.
In ABOTTSTOWN, on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 29th.
In IRISHTOWN, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 29th.
In LITTLESTOWN, on Thursday evening, Sept. 30th.
In HEIDERSBURG, on Friday evening, Oct. 1st.

HON. WILSON REILLY,
the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, is expected to address all these meetings, and speeches will be made by other advocates of the "good old cause." COME ALL! Do not fail to hear the able and eloquent champion of Democracy, Mr. Reilly. By order of the Democratic Co. Com., H. J. STAHLE, Chairman. Sept. 20, 1858.

Coroner.
At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee, held at Wattles's hotel, in this place, on Wednesday last, the election of Dr. STEM was accepted, and Dr. E. W. MUMMA, of Kenduskeag, was unanimously chosen for the position of Coroner upon the Democratic ticket. Dr. Mumma is a gentleman well schooled in his profession, and eminently qualified to discharge the duties of Coroner to the entire satisfaction of the people of the county. He deserves, and will receive, the hearty support of the Democracy.

To Be Warned:
We forewarn our friends that the Opposition are now secretly and steadily at work, and notwithstanding the seeming indifference of many of them as to the result of the contest, every man will be found at his post when his services are wanted.

HON. WILSON REILLY, the Democratic nominee for Congress, addressed a large meeting of the Democracy of Juniata county, in the Court-house, at Millington, on the 8th inst. The room was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the speech of Mr. Reilly is pronounced by the Register to have been thrillingly eloquent and impressive. It was rapturously applauded throughout, and when the meeting adjourned three tremendous cheers were given for Mr. Reilly.

We understand that the Opposition candidate for Congress, Mr. McPherson, is soliciting votes from Democrats. This is bad, to say the least of it. Why, ever since he has been old enough to take part in politics, his course towards Democrats and the Democratic party has been marked by abuse as coarse and offensive as language could make it. Every newspaper with which he ever had connection, was notorious for little else. Vituperative and heartless, therefore, as he has shown himself to be towards his political opponents, his advances for votes at the hands of any of them should be spurned with scorn and contempt.

The skies are bright in our good old Commonwealth. On all sides the unconquerable Democracy are making ready for the October battle, and will carry it in spite of all coalitions. The majority for Porter and Frost may reach 40,000!

The Black Republicans have carried Maine, but by a decreased majority. If the Democrats continue to increase as they have during the past year or two, they will soon have the State.

P. S.—The Democrats have gained a member of Congress and several members of the Legislature. Well done!

At the recent election for Congress in Arkansas, Benton county gave Slideman, Democrat, one thousand three hundred and one votes, and Crosby, Know Nothing, two! The two votes are supposed to be fraudulent.

The Opposition in New York have quarreled, and as a consequence, they have two State tickets in the field. The collar is now on the other horse."

Bold Falsehood:
"The Compiler misstates the facts, when it says that 'Mr. Will voted against the additional pay to members.'"—Adams Sentinel.

The Sentinel in endeavoring to excel the Star in bold falsification. A lie more naked or glaring than the one which the former is guilty of in the above three lines, we have rarely seen equalled in the nearly twenty years during which we have been connected with the newspaper business. That "Mr. Will voted against the additional pay to members," is as indubitable as any fact can be made by eye-witnessed and recorded evidence—and no one possessing a spark of truthfulness or fairness, (knowing the facts, as the editor of that paper does,) can say anything else.

Let us examine the House Journal. The Appropriation Bill, embracing something like fifty sections, as reported by the Committee of Ways and Means, contained a provision allowing members of both Houses $200 more than the regular salary—being the precise amount of additional pay which had been voted at several previous sessions. Mr. Nill moved TO STRIKE OUT the provision in regard to the extra $200, and on the yeas and nays being called, the result was:

IX FAVOR OF STRIKING OUT—Messrs. Abrams, Brandt, Dodds, George, Gilliland, Glazier, Grinnell, Hamel, Hay, Hayes, Hodges, Jenkins, Kincaid, Lovet, McDonald, Negley, Nill, Nunemaker, Owen, Powell, Pownall, Price, Ransdell, Roth, Roland, Rose, Rupp, Sharp, Shultz, Stephens, Stewart, Turner, Voegeli, Warden, Westbrook, Wharton, White, Witmer, Wolf, Woodring, and Longaker, Speak—41.

AGAINST STRIKING OUT—Messrs. Bierer, Bowe, Bruce, Cathman, Castner, Chase, Christy, Crawford, J. H. Donnelly, Jas. Donnelly, Dunlap, Evans, Foster, Hinrod, Hippel, Hiltz, Hiltz, Jr., Johnson, Kirkpatrick, Ladd, Lawrence, Lovell, McGraw, McClure, Mangle, Nichols, Ramsey, Rhodes Scott, Shultz, Smith (Burke), Smith (Combris), Smith (Wyoming), Warner, Weaver, Wells, Wells, Wilder, Williams, Williamson and Yearly—44.

See House Journal, pages 551 and 552.

There! Is not Mr. Will's vote recorded "against the additional pay to members"—or, which is the same thing, in favor of striking it out—as plain as black and white can make it? That the provision carried, was not Mr. Will's fault. He pursued the best possible course to defeat it by voting against it; and this was the only test had upon the section, and consequently the only occasion upon which an expression of the sentiments of members in regard to it could have been given.

Such is a simple and unvarnished statement of the facts in the case, as we have gleaned them from the Journal of the House proceedings. And yet, in the face of all, and easily established as the truth can be, the Adams Sentinel has the mendacity to declare that "The Compiler misstates the facts, when it says that 'Mr. Will voted against the additional pay to members'!"

Humiliating!
The Compiler attempts to get out of Mr. Will's "extra pay" business, by charging that Maj. MUSSelman stands upon the same foot, on the record of the previous session. We do not know that this, even if true, can help Mr. Will. Two wrongs can never make a right."—Adams Sentinel.

"To such complexion," then, must the Sentinel "come at last!"—Driven to the wall, hemmed in on all sides, in regard to the "extra pay business," the editor of that paper is forced to the desperate and humiliating alternative of pronouncing Major MUSSelman's course, in taking extra pay, WRONG! A year ago the act was all right in the eyes of the editor of that paper—but now he declares that it was "wrong;" and thus in effect acknowledges that he himself was accessory to a "wrong," because he endorsed it when the Major was a candidate for re-election!

If the acceptance of the extra pay was a "wrong" in Mr. MUSSelman, what shall be said of the editor of the Sentinel, who winked at it during last fall's contest? He cannot—he dare not—plead ignorance of the facts.

Mr. MUSSelman has much reason to complain of this unlooked-for stab at the hands of the editor of the Sentinel, and he may well be to "saved from his friends!"

No Dodging:
We asked the following question last Monday:

"Say, editors of the Star and Sentinel, did not Major MUSSelman, as a member of the Legislature, accept $200 'extra pay'? And, further, SAY did you faint him for so doing? Answer?"

The query is again put, because the Star wouldn't touch it last Friday, and the Sentinel may be equally mum in regard to it this morning. It is a plain question, and a candid answer (if the editors of the Star and Sentinel can screw themselves up to the truth-telling point,) would furnish the key to the unmanly and persecuting spirit which prompts them in their efforts to defeat CHARLES WILL. Come, gentlemen, there is "black and white" for all we ask.—Will you produce it? Will you "face the music?"

Democrats of Adams, pass the word along the line: "The ticket—the whole ticket—and nothing but the ticket!"

The Democrats of Lancaster county have nominated for Congress JAMES M. HOPKINS, Esq., who will be supported by all the Union-loving men of the district, and may defeat Thaddeus Stevens. The editor of the Intelligencer already thinks that "Stevens is doomed."

The Atlantic Telegraph is not yet in working order. Shouldn't wonder if the managers and electricians were already pulling in different directions.

Let us examine the House Journal.

The Appropriation Bill, embracing something like fifty sections, as reported by the Committee of Ways and Means, contained a provision allowing members of both Houses $200 more than the regular salary—being the precise amount of additional pay which had been voted at several previous sessions. Mr. Nill moved TO STRIKE OUT the provision in regard to the extra $200, and on the yeas and nays being called, the result was:

"I, of my own free will and accord, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will not, under any circumstances, disclose in any manner, such discriminating protection should be given as will secure the rights of free labor and American industry."

The sentiments expressed in each are as like as two peas—and if there was "fraud" in the one there must be "fraud" in the other. Is it not so, candid reader?

This "Tariff" agitation is turning out to be an unfortunate one for the Sentinel and Star, as well as for their candidate for Congress. Both these papers were very earnest in favor of the election of "Free-trade" Wilmet to the Governorship, but a year since whilst Mr. McPherson went so far in his admiration of the "traitor Davy" as to serve in the office of Secretary to his State Committee, and spent several months in that intimate capacity, at Philadelphia, immediately preceding the election. And now, to make bad worse, the Opposition Convention has placed before the people of the Commonwealth, an equally ardent old "Free-trader" for Supreme Judge, JOHN M. REED, of Philadelphia, who was one of the signers to a letter congratulating Vice President Dallas upon his "firmness" and "patriotism" in giving the casting vote against the Tariff of 1842!

Under such adverse circumstances, an ordinary sense of prudence would suggest danger in pronouncing the "Kane letter" a "fraud"! And it would also suggest that significant old adage, that "people who live in glass houses should never throw stones."

Raw Head & Bloody Bones!

The editor of the Star does not like our allusions to Know Nothingism. Did any reader ever know a man guilty of an improper act to desire to have it afterwards, "cast up" to him? Of course not. But it may still be well, occasionally, to remind such persons of the frailty of human nature, that they may be more circumspect in after life. So with the Star managers. We wish to keep them in remembrance of their "dark-lantern" folly, that they may avoid new-fangled isias in the future. We are not sure that our "remedy" will effect a permanent cure—but the physice, nauseating as may be, they must most certainly take, and in just such doses as may choose to prescribe. Ugly faces won't tabate our resolution an iota.

Extravagance!

The Star says that "a lie well stuck is better than the truth." The Star ought to know. As the business is not in our line, of course we cannot be expected to say anything about it, pro or con. But if the editor of that veracious paper is in earnest in the above declaration, we would suggest the necessity of his paying closer attention to his "P's and Q's."

A month or more ago, he declared that Mr. BUCHANAN's Administration expended $100,000,000 in a single year; but fearing that the story was too large even for the "weak-minded" to swallow, on Friday a week he came down to $80,000,000! On our twitting him for the trifling discrepancy, he last Friday took an immense leap upwards, and fixed the sum at nearly $101,000,000! This "lie" has been so bunglingly "stuck to," that we should not wonder if his readers presently believed that the audience would applaud him.

Having no views of public policy to conceal from the public eye, you are, of course, at liberty to make such use of this correspondence as you may think proper."

This has a very candid look, but the beauty of it is sadly damaged by the incident which it suggests in Mr. Durborow's history—to wit, when he took the Know Nothing oath of secrecy in a Council of the Order in Mountjoy township. That oath enjoined and required them to furnish the key to the unmanly and persecuting spirit which prompts them in their efforts to defeat CHARLES WILL. Come, gentlemen, there is "black and white" for all we ask.—Will you produce it? Will you "face the music?"

Democrats of Adams, pass the word along the line: "The ticket—the whole ticket—and nothing but the ticket!"

At the Democratic Legislative Conference of Franklin and Fulton counties, at London, on the 7th instant, the Senatorial Delegate to the next Democratic State Convention was conferred to Adams county.

The Democrats of Lancaster county have nominated for Congress JAMES M. HOPKINS, Esq., who will be supported by all the Union-loving men of the district, and may defeat Thaddeus Stevens. The editor of the Intelligencer already thinks that "Stevens is doomed."

The Atlantic Telegraph is not yet in working order. Shouldn't wonder if the managers and electricians were already pulling in different directions.

Fraud! Fraud!

THE "KANE LETTER" AND THE OPPPOSITION STATE CONVENTION.

"The fraud perpetrated by the celebrated 'Kane letter' in 1844, by which the Democracy were made to believe that James K. Polk was a 'better Taffiff' than HENRY CLAY (!) has surely not been forgotten."—Adams Sentinel.

"If the 'Kane letter' was a 'fraud,' then is the resolution in regard to the Tariff adopted by the recent Black Republican Know Nothing (or 'Peoples') State Convention at Harrisburg—the nominees of which the Sentinel warmly supports—also a 'fraud'?"

Read the following extract from the "Kane letter":

"I am in favor of a tariff for revenue, such an one as will yield a sufficient amount to the Treasury to defray the expenses of the Government economically administered. In adjusting the details of such moderate discriminating duties as would produce the amount of revenue needed, and at the same time afford reasonable incidental protection to our home industry." June 19, 1844.

Now turn to the resolution of the recent Opposition State Convention. It is these words, exactly:

"Resolved, That the revenue necessary for a judicious and economical administration of the Government should be raised by the imposition of duties upon foreign imports, and in laying them, such discriminating protection should be given as will secure the rights of free labor and American industry."

The sentiments expressed in each are as like as two peas—and if there was "fraud" in the one there must be "fraud" in the other. Is it not so, candid reader?

The Mighty Heater's World Known and World Trial.

Holloway's Ointment.

THE free admissions of all Nations, as well as the patients of the leading Hospitals of the Old as well as the New World, stamp this powerful remedial Agent, as the greatest penetrative preparation ever made known to suffering man. Its penetrative qualities are more than MARVELOUS, through the external surfaces of the skin; invisible to the naked eye, it reaches the seat of the internal disease; and in all external afflictions its anti-inflammatory and healing virtues surpass anything on record, and is Nature's great ally.

ERYSPELAS AND SALT RHUEM are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to those the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

BAD LEGS, OLD SORES AND ULCERS. — Cases of many years standing that have perniciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful agent.

ERUPTIONS ON THE SKIN, arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic disease are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetic and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

PILES AND FISTULA. — Every form and feature of those prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emollient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and inviolable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Rheumatism, Sore Throats, Cold in the Head, Skin Diseases, Scabs, Skin Diseases, Tetter, Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Sore Throats, Wounds of all kinds, Piles.

Cautions. — None are necessary unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A valuable reward will be given to any one who can give information as to any accident or damage to any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or rendering the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Greatest Improvement. — OF THE AGE. — —done, Patent KEROSINE, or COAL OIL LAMPS, unrivaled in Beauty, Simplicity, Safety, or Economy. Every person desiring to obtain the very best and cheapest portable light, within their reach, should call and examine these lamps before purchasing elsewhere, for the reason, that no accident can occur by explosion.

That they emit No offensive Odor while burning.

That they are very easily trimmed.

That they burn entirely free from smoke.

That the light is at least 50 per cent, clearer than any other light now in common use.

These lamps are admirably adapted for the use of Students, Mechanics, Seafarers, Bells, Churches, Stores, Hotels, and are highly recommended for Family Use.
